It's in our control to end coercive control

There's no place for coercive control in a healthy relationship.

Coercive control is a pattern of abusive behaviours used against another person to create a climate of fear, isolation, intimidation and humiliation.

Find more information and support
www.qld.gov.au/dfvpmonth

For free, confidential crisis support
DVConnect Womensline (24/7) 1800 811 811
DVConnect Mensline (9am to midnight, 7 days) 1800 600 636
Mensline Australia (24/7) 1300 78 99 78

In an emergency
Call Triple Zero (000) and ask for Police (24/7).

Queensland Government

7275-dfv