General Manager's Notice Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994

Notice relating to holders of Pilot Licences and Pilot Exemption Certificates under the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994: extension of expiry date.

This notice applies to the holder of a pilot licence granted under Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Regulation 2016 section 71, or a pilotage exemption certificate granted under Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Regulation 2016 section 166 (the authority) if the expiry date stated on the authority, or any endorsement to the authority, falls between 16 March 2020 and 15 September 2020.

In light of the current situation regarding the declared COVID-19 pandemic, the expiry date stated on the authority and the expiry date on any endorsement to the authority, is hereby rescinded, and the expiry date of the authority or the endorsement is taken to be 16 September 2020.

No fee will apply to the extension of the expiry date of the authority pursuant to this notice.

This notice forms part of the authority. There is no requirement to carry a copy of this notice.

Please note this notice relates only to the expiry date of relevant existing authorities. It does not affect new applications, or applications to vary or upgrade existing authorities.
