*Electricity Act 1994CODE REVISION NOTICE

Pursuant to Section 120J of the Electricity Act 1994, the Queensland Competition Authority (QCA) advises that revisions to the Electricity Industry Code (the Code) were approved by the Minister for Energy and Water Supply. The changes:

- (a) escalate the current Guaranteed Service Level (GSL) payment amounts and annual payment cap (excluding GSLs for wrongful disconnections) applicable to Energex and Ergon Energy for the next regulatory period, commencing 1 July 2015, by 9.15%, to maintain their real deterrent value
- (b) amend the planned interruption GSL notification provisions for the next regulatory period, commencing 1 July 2015, contained under clause 2.5.8 of the Code. The amendments:
  - (i) require a distribution entity to provide at least four business days' notice of a planned interruption to supply (except in the case of emergencies) to a small customer's premises
  - (ii) allow the notice period of a planned interruption to supply to a small customer's premises to be varied by agreement in writing between the distribution entity and the small customer. The agreement must:
    - state the new period in which the distribution entity must notify the affected small customer of a planned interruption
    - include a statement stating that the small customer provides explicit informed consent to enter into the agreement
    - notify the small customer of their right to at least four business days' notice of a planned interruption to supply to the customer's premises if the period is not varied
    - state that the small customer may be eligible for a GSL payment if the notice period is varied and the small customer does not agree to the variation.

The revised Code (version 18) will come into effect on and from 1 July 2015.

A copy of the revised Code can be obtained free of charge from the QCA website at www.qca.org.au or by phone on (07) 3222 0555.
