Privacy Disclaimer: The Department of Primary Industries is collecting the information on this form to assess your application to register temporary transfer of primary commercial fishing licence. This information is authorised by section 65 of the Fisheries Act. This information will only be accessed by authorised employees within the department. Some information collected on this form is made available to the public in the Register of Authorities under Section 73 of the Fisheries Act 1994 and Section 73 of the Fisheries (General Regulation) 2019. Please be aware that the postal address you provide may be released under a search. You must also provide, for an individual, a residential address, or for a corporation, a registered office address for the purpose of giving notices under fisheries legislation. The residential/registered office address will not be made available under a search of the Register unless it is also the postal address. Your information will not be disclosed to any other parties unless authorised or required by law.

Requirement checklist

To ensure your application to register the temporary transfer is not unduly delayed, please ensure the following requirements are satisfied:

- ☐ Payment of the transfer registration fee.
- ☐ Written approval of each person, other than the licence holder, who has an interest in the licence noted in the Register of Authorities
- ☐ The current Primary Commercial Fishing licence card must be given to the temporary transferee.
- ☐ Provision of a copy of the current company extract (see notes) for each company involved in the above transfer. You may provide a copy with your application, or a copy can be arranged on your behalf by contacting this office (fees apply).

Related applications

- ☐ Register Temporary Transfer of Quota – Form FDU1469 (if applicable)
- ☐ Primary Commercial Fishing Licence Amendment Request- Form FDU1462 (if applicable)

Notes

The information in this checklist is to assist you in complying with the requirements of the Fisheries Act 1994 that relate to the licence to be temporarily transferred. It should not be relied on for specific advice. It is not a precise statement of law and deals with matters that are subject to change. Complete copies of the Fisheries Act 1994, regulations and management plans can be accessed via the website <http://www.legislation.qld.gov.au/>.

It is recommended you seek independent financial advice before investing in commercial fisheries in Queensland.

Witnesses to applicants signatures

The transfer must be executed as follows:

- For individuals, signatures can be witnessed by any other person, the witness must be 18 years or over.
- For a corporation, the form is signed in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, s127 by: either two directors, or a director and a company secretary, or the sole director who is the sole secretary.
- All applicants must be 18 years or over to hold an Authority.

Be aware that legislative provisions relating to the ability to take fish under the licence becomes the transferee's right, while other responsibilities, for example, logbook compliance and fee notice payments, remain with the original holder. For further clarification of the responsibilities between parties to the temporary transfer please contact the Department.

Company extract

A company extract is a specific document issued by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission which identifies the directors and secretaries of the company. Please note that a certificate of incorporation is not a company extract.

Information Requirements

By submitting this form, you acknowledge that you are aware of the current quota, logbook and vessel tracking information requirements for operating in Queensland fisheries.

- Vessel tracking requirements for particular fisheries (e.g. net, line, crab, sea cucumber and trawl) apply;
- Particular fisheries are managed by a quota system. Quota entitlement must be held and quota reporting requirements must be completed when operating in these fisheries (e.g. RQ, shark, etc);
- Logbooks are required to be completed and submitted for each fishery. Please refer to the logbook directions located in the front of your logbook. The logbooks should be passed between the applicants at the time of lodging this application, or a new logbook will be issued to the transferee if the following box is ticked

For further information on your requirements, please call 13 25 23 or visit your local Queensland Boating and Fisheries Patrol office.
