

Inspection report Cleveland Youth Detention Centre June quarter 2012 - Addendum

Youth Detention Inspectorate, Ethical Standards Unit

Findings in relation to Behaviour Development Plans

To be read following dot point three on page 8:

There is ambiguity as to whether the verbal approval of the chief executive or his delegate was obtained in relation to the use of locked door separation for more than 24 hours, as required by section 22(2)(c) of the Youth Justice Regulation 2003. No written approval of the chief executive or his delegate was obtained for the use of locked door separation for more than 24 hours.
