

Change to mode of delivery under a training plan (by one party)

A party to a training plan (i.e. employer, apprentice/trainee or supervising registered training organisation (SRTO)) may make application to the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT) to change the mode of delivery of the training plan if the change is necessary to assist the apprentice or trainee make the required progress to achieve the qualification or statement of attainment under the training plan.

The party applying MUST consider why the apprentice or trainee has not made sufficient progress to achieve the qualification or statement of attainment under the training plan. An application to change a training plan under Section 82A of the Further Education and Training Act 2014 MUST state the proposed change to the mode of delivery of the training plan and the reasons for the proposed change.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Completing this form – Failure to complete all details on Pages 1 and 2 of this form may delay a decision on this application. A copy of the current training plan should be attached when submitting this application. If the apprentice or trainee is making this application, the signature of the parent or guardian is required only if the apprentice or trainee is under 18 and it is appropriate (e.g. the apprentice or trainee is not living independently of the parent or guardian).

Date the change to the mode of delivery takes effect – If the decision by the DESBT is to change the mode of delivery of the training plan, the date the change takes effect cannot be less than 14 days after the written notice about the decision is given to the parties. The SRTO must take all reasonable steps to ensure the change is complied with by the parties to the training plan.

Return this form (must be completed and signed) via email to apprenticeshipsinfo@qld.gov.au (using a subject heading of 'Change to delivery mode') or post to Apprenticeships Info, PO Box 15121, CITY EAST QLD 4002
