Instructions

- Before changing its name by special resolution, a co-operative should provide details of the proposed new name to the Office of Fair Trading to determine whether the name is able to be approved.
- The name you propose may not be approved because it is deemed unsuitable or similar or identical to an existing name. To check to see if your name already exists or is similar you can search ASIC's business name register.
- The name of a co-operative must include the word 'Co-operative', 'Cooperative' or the abbreviation 'Co-op' or 'Coop' and must end in the word 'Limited' or the abbreviation 'Ltd'.
- The rules of the co-operative that include the name will also need to be changed. Form 6—Application for Registration of amendment of rules will need to accompany this application.
