Planning Act 2016

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF
AMENDMENTS TO THE LOGAN PLANNING SCHEME 2015 –
HEALTH CARE SERVICE AMENDMENT, HOUSING AND LOT
DIVERSITY AMENDMENT, MAJOR PLANNING SCHEME
AMENDMENT 2021, MIXED USE ZONE AMENDMENT,
ADMINISTRATIVE AMENDMENT 2021

Notice is given under the Planning Act 2016 that on 25 January 2023, Logan City Council adopted the Health Care Service Amendment, Housing and Lot Diversity Amendment, Major Planning Scheme Amendment 2021, Mixed Use Zone Amendment and Administrative Amendment 2021.

The purpose and general effect of the Health Care Service Amendment is to introduce a new development code to regulate Health care services, providing particular guidance on location, design and amenity. The code also includes focussed provisions that seek to regulate pharmacotherapy clinics with respect to location, separation distances, indoor waiting area size and mechanical surveillance.

The purpose and general effect of the Housing and Lot Diversity Amendment is to:

- align the requirements for reconfiguring a lot in the Low density residential zone and Rural residential zone with community expectations through changes in lot size and frontage requirements;
- establish lot frontage diversity requirements for larger scale residential developments; and
- remove 'equivalent dwellings' for Dual occupancy to align with the above changes.

The purpose and general effect of the Major Planning Scheme Amendment 2021 is to make various major changes to multiple sections of the planning scheme and planning scheme policies to address new policy, rectify operational matters, improve consistency, ensure the planning scheme remains contemporary and remove undue regulation.

The purpose and general effect of the Mixed Use Zone Amendment is to implement Council's vision and strategy for employment land in Logan. In particular, the amendment:

- introduces four precincts within the Mixed use zone;
- identifies preferred land uses for each new precinct; and
- optimises the zoning of industrial land.

The purpose and general effect of the Administrative Amendment 2021 is to make administrative changes to the planning scheme.

The amendments will commence on and from 6 February 2023.

From this date, the amendments will be available for inspection and purchase at Council's Administration Centre at 150 Wembley Road, Logan Central, Beenleigh Customer Service Centre and Jimboomba Customer Service Centre or can be viewed and downloaded from Council's website at logan.qld.gov.au.

For further enquiries in relation to the amendments, please contact Council on (07) 3412 4247 during business hours.

DIRECTIVE

SCHEDULE A – GENERAL CONDITIONS1. Entitlement

1.1 A public service officer or temporary employee engaged under section 148(2)(a) of the Public Service Act 2008 (referred to as “employee” in this directive) who is required to –

- (a) travel on official duty; or
- (b) to take up duty away from the employee’s usual place of work to relieve another employee or to perform special duty shall be allowed actual and reasonable expenses or allowances for accommodation, meals and incidental expenses necessarily incurred by the employee as provided in this directive.

2. Options for payment

2.1 The chief executive may determine the method of payment of travelling and relieving expenses or allowances for employees within his or her department.

2.2 The determination may be made from the following options –

- (a) payment direct to the supplier through the use of corporate credit cards;
- (b) payment direct to the supplier by contractual arrangement or billing system;
- (c) reimbursement to the employee for actual, reasonable costs incurred by the employee;
- (d) payment of travelling and relieving allowances as prescribed in this directive.

A combination of any of these options may be used.

2.3 If an employee has specific reasons or believes that they will be financially disadvantaged by a particular method of payment, they may apply as a special case to the chief executive for payment by a different method.

3. Minimum standard of accommodation

3.1 Employees are to be provided with reasonable accommodation in well appointed establishments offering a comfortable standard of accommodation, including individual sleeping quarters and ensuite except where this standard is not available at a particular centre.

3.2 Departments may offer their employees a higher standard of accommodation where appropriate (e.g. conference venue, location of hotel in relation to work site, competitive rates negotiated with a higher rated establishment).

4. Limit on meals

4.1 The actual and reasonable costs allowed for meals are not to exceed the standard meal allowances as prescribed in this schedule unless otherwise approved by the chief executive.

5. Application of allowances

5.1 The allowances contained in this schedule apply in situations where the accommodation, meals or incidentals are not paid directly by the department or reimbursed to the employee.

5.2 Payment of meal allowances shall be based on the prescribed rates for the particular centre where the employee incurred the expense.

6. Meals during overnight absences

6.1 On the first and last day of an employee’s overnight absence from usual place of work or home, the employee is entitled to the payment of meal expenses or meal allowances in accordance with the following departure and return times.

6.2 Departure from or return to usual place of work or home

Lunch – the employee departs earlier than 1.30 pm or returns later than 1.30 pm.

Dinner – the employee departs earlier than 6.30 pm or returns later than 6.30 pm.

Breakfast – an employee is not eligible for payment of expenses or a meal allowance upon departure except in situations where the employee has to depart from their usual place of work or home before 6.00 am and it is not practicable for the employee to have breakfast before leaving and must purchase it during the journey.

7. Deduction of meal expenses or allowances

7.1 An employee is not entitled to expenses or a meal allowance for a meal that is provided at departmental expense or as part of a fare.

Provided that such meal is of reasonable quantity and quality in the relevant circumstances.

8. Not payable during leave

8.1 An employee who takes leave while travelling on official duty or while absent from their usual place of work on relieving or special duty is not entitled to the payment of travelling or relieving expenses or allowances during the period of the leave except in the case of illness or any other case determined by the chief executive.

9. Telephone calls, facsimiles and postage

9.1 Official telephone calls, facsimiles, etc. and postage costs are to be paid by the department concerned.

10. Incidental expenses or allowance

10.1 Incidental expenses or the incidental allowance are paid to employees to cover expenditure of the following nature –

- newspapers, magazines;
- snacks including coffee, tea or drinks, etc;
- private telephone calls;
- personal items necessary for the travel.

11. Cost of conveyance

11.1 Travelling and relieving expenses and allowances are in addition to the cost of conveyance of the employee.

12. Locality allowance

12.1 Where an employee is in receipt of travelling or relieving expenses or allowances under this schedule, the arrangements for locality allowance applicable at the employee's usual place of work are to continue during the first 42 days of absence at a particular centre of duty. Thereafter the arrangements for locality allowance, if any, applicable to that centre shall apply as long as the employee remains at that centre.

12.2 The payment of locality allowance should not be taken into account in determining an employee's entitlement to travelling or relieving expenses or allowances.

13. Advances

13.1 Where the employee is to be paid travelling or relieving allowances or will be claiming reimbursement of actual expenses, the employee may be granted an advance up to 100% of the estimated costs.

14. Certification after overnight absence

- 14.1 At the conclusion of the journey, the employee is required to certify that the official travel was undertaken in accordance with the approved itinerary.
- 14.2 Any change to the itinerary resulting in variation of payments or changed costs (e.g. claiming actual expenses instead of meal allowances) should be appropriately acquitted.

15. Documentary evidence

- 15.1 Before an expense is paid, the employee may be required to produce documentary evidence as determined by the chief executive. This evidence may include –
- receipts,
 - itemised statements,
 - certifications, etc.

16. Time limit on claim

- 16.1 Without the approval of the chief executive, a claim shall not be paid unless it is submitted within 12 months of –
- the date of completion of the work; or
 - incurring of the expense; or
 - the conclusion of the circumstances leading to the claim.

17. Other Issues

- 17.1 It is a requirement that employees abide by all regulations outlined for the given locality (e.g. alcohol management plans).

18. Adjustment of allowances set out in Schedule B of this directive

18.1 Other than special allowance

From 1 September each year, the allowances set out in Schedule B of this directive (excluding the special allowance) will be commensurate with rates set out in the most recently published Australian Taxation Office 'Taxation Determination' that provides for reasonable travel expense amounts, specifically, Table 1 and the tables referred to therein.

18.2 Special allowance

From 1 September each year, the special allowance will be adjusted by the 'percentage change from corresponding quarter of previous year' weighted average of the Eight Capital Cities Consumer Price Index (June quarter) published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics, with the first adjustment to occur on 1 September 2023. The dollar value of the allowance is to be rounded to the nearest five (5) cents.

SCHEDULE B – TRAVELLING AND RELIEVING ALLOWANCESIMPORTANT

Note 1: Clause 18 in Schedule A provides for how the rates in Schedule B are to be adjusted from time to time.

Note 2: Despite the inclusion of a country centre under 'high cost' or 'tier 2' headings in this directive at the time of publishing, the actual designation as a high cost country centre, tier two country centre or otherwise and the associated rate is to be as prescribed by the Australian Taxation Determination that provides for reasonable travel allowance expense amounts applicable from 1 September each year.

1. Absences not extending overnight(a) Absence from headquarters or home is at least 12 hours

3. Option to claim actual expenses

An employee may claim actual expenses where the accommodation charges at a particular centre exceed the amount prescribed for accommodation at that centre or where the cost of meals exceeds the total amount prescribed for meals for the whole of the employee's absence.

Such actual expenses are to be reimbursed to the employee subject to the chief executive being satisfied that the claim is reasonable and the employee has complied with the general conditions relating to minimum standard of accommodation and documentary evidence.

Five examples are shown to clarify the employee's entitlement where actual expenses are claimed by the employee.

(i) All accommodation and meals claimed as actuals

Actual and reasonable expenses for accommodation and meals PLUS Relevant incidental expenses allowance

(ii) All meals and some accommodation claimed as actuals

Actual and reasonable expenses for accommodation and meals PLUS Relevant allowances as prescribed in 2 above for accommodation not claimed as actual expenses PLUS Relevant incidental expenses allowance

(iii) All accommodation claimed as actuals

Actual and reasonable expenses for accommodation PLUS Relevant allowances as prescribed in 2 above for meals PLUS Relevant incidental expenses allowance

(iv) Some accommodation claimed as actuals

Actual and reasonable expenses for accommodation PLUS Relevant allowances as prescribed in 2 above for meals and accommodation not claimed as actual expenses PLUS Relevant incidental expenses allowance

(v) All meals claimed as actuals

Actual and reasonable expenses for meals PLUS Relevant allowances as prescribed in 2 above for accommodation PLUS Relevant incidental expenses allowance

4. Extended periods of relieving or special duty

Where an employee relieves another employee or performs special duty at another centre for an extended period, the employee shall be allowed relieving allowances or expenses as determined hereunder –

(a) Up to 4 weeks

Relevant allowances as prescribed in 2 above for accommodation, meals and incidentals.

(b) More than 4 weeks

For the whole period of the relieving or special duty, such reasonable expenses as negotiated between the employee and the department provided that the employee is not out of pocket (ie. not financially disadvantaged in comparison to remaining at the employee's usual place of work) during the extended period of relieving or special duty.

Without limiting the capacity of the parties to negotiate the payment of expenses, the following costs may be taken into consideration –

- accommodation costs appropriate to the duration of the relieving period and the personal family circumstances of the employee;
- costs of purchasing or preparing meals for the employee;
- payment of transfer expenses as prescribed in the Ministerial Directive Transfer and Appointment Expenses in lieu of relieving allowances;
- use of a government vehicle or compensation for taking own vehicle to the relieving centre as prescribed in the Ministerial Directive Motor Vehicle Allowances; and
- reunion visits to the employee's normal centre.

The agreed arrangements are to be documented to satisfy any human resource management or financial audit requirements.

ELECTORAL COMMISSION OF QUEENSLAND

In accordance with Section 63 of the Electoral Act 1992, I have ascertained and set out in Schedule A hereunder, as at the date indicated, the number of electors enrolled in each Electoral District for the State of Queensland and have determined the average district enrolment and the extent to which the number of electors enrolled in each district differs from the average enrolment.

Schedule B indicates the adjusted enrolment for Electoral Districts of 100,000 square kilometres or more in area, being the sum of the number of enrolled electors and the additional large district number as specified in Section 45 of the Act, and the extent to which those districts differ from the average district enrolment in Schedule A.

Pat Vidgen PSM
Electoral Commissioner
