

Safe and Diverse Communities Grant Program 2022 – Successful Recipients
Organisation Name	Project Title	Target Cohort	Project Location/s	Description	Amount
Aiga Samoa Association North Brisbane Inc.	Aua le Galo Fa'aaloalo! Don't Forget Respect!	Polynesian communities	Deception Bay	The Aiga Samoa Association North Brisbane Inc. will deliver a seven-week workshop which will involve community members to participate in meaningful activities with the aim to prevent and address sexual, domestic and family violence to Samoan and Pacifica children, young people, women and men in the Deception Bay area.	$25,000.00
Bundaberg & District Neighbourhood Centre	Educate, Recognise and Act. Aimed at increasing the culturally and linguistically diverse communities ability to recognise the signs of domestic and family violence and how to seek advice or help and refer to support services.	The culturally and linguistically diverse communities in the Bundaberg region	Bundaberg	The Bundaberg & District Neighbourhood Centre will deliver eight targeted information sessions/workshops/forums to educate both women and men in CALD communities to recognise, respond and refer to the signs of sexual, domestic and family violence in the Bundaberg region. These sessions will raise the awareness of the different types of physical and non-physical forms of abuse, requirements under Australian law and healthy relationships and appropriate behaviours.	$18,400.00
Centre Against Domestic Abuse	Empowered and Safe Communities	Culturally and linguistically diverse communities in the Moreton Bay region	Moreton Bay	The Centre Against Domestic Abuse will deliver a Empowered and Safe Communities initiative that will build on the already established program Multiculturally Unique Mothers (MUMs) initiative to provide a safe and culturally inclusive mother's group run in four-week blocks in three locations across Moreton Bay. The initiative will aim to increase social connections and enhance awareness of and engagement with mainstream services within the area.	$22,956.38

Safe and Diverse Communities Grant Program 2022 – Successful Recipients
Organisation Name	Project Title	Target Cohort	Project Location/s	Description	Amount
Community Services Industry Alliance	Sexual, Domestic and Family Violence in the Workplace	Inclusive of all culturally and linguistically diverse people working in the community services industry	State-wide	The Community Services Industry Alliance (CSIA) will partner with Basic Rights Queensland and WorkHaven to deliver: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a working group of cultural leaders and CALD community services workers</li> <li>• a co-design working group community-led workshops to discuss how workplaces can take an intersectional approach in their SDFV workplace strategy</li> <li>• Expansion of CSIA's DFV web portal to include project findings and the voices of CALD people</li> <li>• an online event for our industry to improve SDFV workplace strategies for CALD employees.</li> </ul>	$25,000.00
Ethni Inc	Safe Sisters	Young women (primary audience) and women (secondary audience) from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds in the Logan area	Logan Central	Ethni Inc. will engage with young women from refugee, migrant and CALD backgrounds, in the Logan area, to educate participants on how to address the issues of safety and identify and respond appropriately to the impacts of sexual, domestic and family violence.	$24,616.00
Ethnic Communities Council of Queensland	Let's Talk – A roadshow for Domestic and Family Violence Prevention Month	The project will target a wide range of culturally and linguistically diverse communities	Brisbane region	The Ethnic Communities Council of Queensland will deliver ten events throughout Domestic and Family Violence Prevention Month in May 2023. These events will be co-hosted by Honorary Consuls and leaders from multicultural communities in the Brisbane region. Each event will be co-designed by community leaders and tailored to the specific sexual, domestic and family violence challenges and issues that the target community is experiencing.	$25,000.00

Safe and Diverse Communities Grant Program 2022 – Successful Recipients
Organisation Name	Project Title	Target Cohort	Project Location/s	Description	Amount
Gold Coast Multicultural Arts Group in Collaboration - GCMAGIC	Knowledge is Power	The Surfers Paradise culturally and linguistically diverse Community	Surfers Paradise	GCMAGIC will deliver ten story-sharing and creative writing workshops and conduct three in-depth creative workshops after the completion of 10 participant interactive sessions. These sessions will focus on enhancing the resilience and raise the awareness about identifying the impacts of sexual, domestic and family violence of the 39 local cultural groups that GCMAGIC engage with in the Surfers Paradise area.	$12,000.00
Mater Misericordia Limited	The HELP Project: Health professional Educational Learning Package supporting the identification of and response to domestic and family violence in the peripartum for culturally and linguistically diverse families	Women and families in the perinatal period (i.e. from conception to 2 years after birth) from a range of culturally and linguistically diverse communities	South Brisbane	Mater Misericordia Limited will deliver an educational learning package comprising of an online module and simulation training available for maternity clinics across the state. Their initiative will be co-designed with health professionals, cultural leaders and women from CALD backgrounds who have experienced violence during pregnancy.	$25,000.00
Polynesian/African Cross Cultural Advisory Inc.	Action to recognize and prevent violent and toxic family relationship patterns	Polynesian and African communities	Goodna	The Polynesian/ African Cross Cultural Advisory Inc. will deliver a series of workshops and social connection forums to deliver community education and awareness about the impacts of sexual, domestic and family violence with Polynesian and African communities in the Goodna area.	$25,000.00
Strong Communities Ltd	Gladstone Diverse, Safe and Respectful Families	All culturally and linguistically diverse communities	Gladstone	Strong Communities Ltd. will deliver a series of eight workshops that will provide information, education and connection to CALD women in the	$23,600.00

Safe and Diverse Communities Grant Program 2022 – Successful Recipients
Organisation Name	Project Title	Target Cohort	Project Location/s	Description	Amount
				Gladstone region to support them in recognising, responding and preventing sexual, domestic and family violence.
The Migrant Centre Organisation Inc. (Trading as TMC Thriving Multicultural Communities)	No Woman Misunderstood 2023	All culturally and linguistically diverse communities in the Redlands region.	Southport	TMC will deliver 12 workshops targeting community and religious leaders to provide culturally sensitive training and resources to increase awareness of sexual, domestic and family violence and prevention strategies, improving victim support, increasing equitable access to information and services, and increasing reporting across the Southport region.	$20,650.00