Fisheries Queensland suggests that persons entering the commercial fishing industry should contact one of the commercial fishing industry associations to seek information on other requirements and practicalities associated with operating in Queensland's commercial fishing industry. Relevant industry associations include:

- Queensland Seafood Industry Association – PO Box 3856, Victoria Point West Qld 4165, www.qsia.com.au
- Gulf of Carpentaria Fishermans Association - PO Box 138, Karumba, QLD 4891.
- Fishermens Portal Inc. - 49 Riverview Drive, Karumba, QLD 4891. fishermensportal@gmail.com
- Queensland Seafood Marketers Association - 33 Pankina Street, Sunnybank, QLD 4109.
- Moreton Bay Seafood Industry Association - PO Box 5060, Victoria Point, QLD 4165. www.mbsia.org.au

Certain food handling and storage requirements apply to commercial fishing operations in Queensland. These requirements are administered by Safe Food Queensland. It is suggested that persons new to the commercial fishing industry should contact Safe Food Queensland to be sure they are aware of the food handling and storage requirements that apply to their business. More information on these requirements can be found at: www.safefood.qld.gov.au or by contacting Safe Food Queensland on: 1800 300 815.

Please also note that if you are also intending to be in charge of a boat you will also need the appropriate competency certificate to satisfy the Marine Safety (Domestic Commercial Vessel) National Law Act 2012. The Commercial Fisher Licence does not cover this aspect of your operations, you should contact Australian Maritime Safety Authority on 1800 627 484 for further information.

Fisheries Queensland has developed a number of videos to inform fishers of the most appropriate way to handle species of conservation interest that may be incidentally taken whilst commercially fishing. These videos can be viewed at: <http://www.youtube.com/user/fisheriesqld>.
