

Community-based Crime Action

Identified areas of community concern in response to youth crime

Moreton

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Recreational and leisure activities
10. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
11. Address knife crime
12. Address motor vehicle crime
13. Address social media influences on youth crime.
14. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders
15. Health and wellbeing and life skills programs

Far North Queensland

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Interventions targeted to the Cairns Southern Corridor area (including Edmonton and Gordonvale)
10. Interventions targeted to the Mareeba area
11. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people on statutory Youth Justice Orders

12. Recreational and leisure activities
13. 72 hour plans and release from Youth Detention
14. Substance misuse
15. Sexual health and safety
16. Negative peer influences
17. Young people using violence including intimate partner violence and domestic and family violence.
18. Young people displaying anti-social behaviour that are not yet involved in the youth justice system
19. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
20. Alternate safe accommodation

Gold Coast

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
10. Substance misuse
11. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people in the Youth Justice system
12. Health and wellbeing and life skills programs
13. Life skill/trade programs for disengaged and at risk youth aged 15 years and under
14. Diversionary programs away from shopping centres and transport hubs

Ipswich

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training

Logan

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks.

Mount Isa

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. School holiday support and activities for young people
10. Young people using violence including intimate partner violence and domestic and family violence
11. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders
12. Diversionary programs away from shopping centres and transport hubs.

North Brisbane

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Young people displaying anti-social behaviour that are not yet involved in the youth justice system.
10. Responses to support families of Serious Repeat Offenders

11. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
12. Recreational and leisure activities
13. Alternate safe accommodation
14. Health and wellbeing and life skills programs
15. Substance abuse avoidance
16. Address social media influences on youth crime
17. Address knife crime
18. Address motor vehicle crime.

Capricornia

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Diversionary programs away from shopping centres and transport hubs
10. Healthy relationship programs
11. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people in the Youth Justice system
12. Early intervention – response to young people interacting with police and/or courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders.
13. Interventions targeted at the Rockhampton City, Gracemere, Mount Morgan, Yeppoon, Emu Park or Woorabinda areas
14. Mental health support
15. Recreational and leisure activities
16. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
17. Youth safe spaces
18. Alternate safe accommodation

Darling Downs

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. Young people transitioning from detention
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Recreational and leisure activities.

10. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders
11. Substance misuse
12. Mentoring for young people at risk
13. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people on statutory Youth Justice Orders

Townsville

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. School holiday support and activities for young people
10. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders
11. Recreational and leisure activities
12. Health and wellbeing and life skills programs

South Brisbane

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Recreational and leisure activities
10. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
11. Address knife crime
12. Address motor vehicle crime
13. Address social media influences on youth crime.
14. School holiday support and activities for young people
15. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders
16. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people on statutory Youth Justice Orders
17. Culturally safe responses to CALD young people
18. Therapeutic responses

19. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
20. Programs that include transport for targeted young people
21. 10-14 years involved in youth crime.

Mackay

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. School holiday support and activities for young people
10. Young people at risk
11. Diversionary programs away from shopping centres and transport hubs.
12. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders
13. Early intervention to empower a young person to prevent them becoming a victim.
14. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people in the Youth Justice system
15. Educate young people in large groups (i.e. schools) about “risk taking behaviour” the consequences of these behaviours and present alternative behaviours to reduce harm and prevent crime.

Wide Bay/Burnett

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Healthy Relationship Programs
10. Parenting programs
11. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders.
12. Responses to violence and use of weapons
13. Support for disengaged young people with education, work readiness, employment, or training
14. Alternate safe accommodation

15. Young people using violence including intimate partner violence and domestic and family violence
16. Address motor vehicle crime
17. Address social media influences on youth crime
18. Interventions that provide additional family supports for young people in the Youth Justice system
19. Health and wellbeing and life skills programs

Sunshine Coast

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect up, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks
9. Healthy Relationship Programs
10. Parenting programs
11. Early Intervention - responses to young people interacting with Police and/or Courts not yet on Youth Justice Orders.
12. Young people using violence including intimate partner violence and domestic and family violence

South West

1. Responses that are available after business hours (i.e., after 5pm and into the night), on weekends or public holidays
2. Culturally safe responses for First Nations young people
3. Responses that upskill and build capacity for the workforce that support young people in the youth justice system (i.e., developing resources, programs, responses, and/or training people who work with repeat offenders to address criminogenic behaviour)
4. 10–13-year-olds involved in youth crime
5. Young people transitioning from detention
6. Responses tailored to the specific need of young women at risk/who have offended
7. Responses to address use of violence and use of weapons
8. Responses that connect, leverage and strengthen existing services, programs and networks.

