Step by step remote self-exclusions guide for Gambling Help Services

This guide outlines the process a Gambling Help Service (GHS) should follow to assist a person to self-exclude from a venue, without the person physically attending the venue.

This process can be used at any time, including prior to gaming venues reopening after COVID-19 business closures.

STEP 1 Initial discussion and information gathering

- Explain to the person that selfexclusion is for a 5-year period and can only be revoked within the initial 24-hour cooling-off period or after 12 months if the person completes Form 3C Revocation notice: self-exclusion order
- A person can exclude from a gambling venue, part of a venue or gambling product (e.g. they can just exclude from the gaming area)
- Ask the person to complete the Remote self-exclusion authority and identification form
- Take a clear digital colour photo of the person (head and shoulders shot)
- Take a copy of the person's photo identification

STEP 2 Complete Form 3A Self-exclusion notice

- Complete the person's details on page 2 of Form 3A Self-exclusion notice. Include email address for patron and GHS
- Ask the person to sign and date form
- GHS representative to print name as the witness
- GHS representative to photocopy Form 3A the required number of times (i.e. no. of venues nominated) and complete page 1 with the individual venue name/s
- Where the person wants to exclude from multiple venues, these should generally be close to the person's home or workplace. No more than 30 venues should be included as having a large number of exclusions can adversely impact the effectiveness of a manual identification system

STEP 3

Send the Form 3A Self-exclusion notice and related documents to the venue/s

• Contact the relevant venue/s to confirm their email address and contact person to receive Form 3A Self-exclusion notice

(Please note: for TAB agencies, remote self-exclusion notices should be sent to RGWagering@tabcorp.com.au and will be processed by Tabcorp's Responsible Gambling team)

- Email the Form 3A, Remote self-exclusion authority and identification form, electronic copy of the digital colour photo and copy of the person's photo ID to the venue/s
- Title the email: "URGENT - NEW REMOTE SELF-EXCLUSION NOTICE"

- In the body of the email state that the completed Form 3B Selfexclusion order is to be emailed to the person and the GHS
- The venue/s must send the person the completed Form 3B Selfexclusion order promptly
- The 24-hour cooling-off period begins when the venue sends back the Form 3B Self-exclusion order to the person and GHS
- Provide a copy of Form 3B Selfexclusion order to the person if required
- GHS is to keep a copy of all forms and documents for their records
