Htoo Khaing, Cairns | Construction worker

Building bright futures through training

Htoo Khaing, an Arakanese refugee from Myanmar, was settled in Australia with his family by Centacare Multicultural Services and, despite previous construction experience, needed local qualifications to secure employment.

Htoo Khaing enrolled in a Certificate I in Construction with SkillCentred as part of Centacare FNQ's UpCyclinc Traineeships project, funded under the Skilling Queenslanders for Work initiative.

Bilingual supervisors and a bicultural support worker supported Htoo Khaing through his training, and he went on to secure a full-time position with

Port Douglas' Mark Fletcher Solid Plaster and Texture Coatings.

His employer Mark Fletcher is a strong advocate for workplace diversity and the benefits of inclusion, with his 2023 workforce including six refugees from Nepal, Bhutan and Myanmar – two becoming qualified tradespeople and team leaders. "Htoo Khaing has been a wonderful addition to our team," Mark said.

The Queensland Government's Skilling Queenslanders for Work initiative funds training and support programs for unemployed and underemployed Queenslanders so they can start and stay in the workforce.
