INSTRUCTIONS TO CLAIMANT FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

What you need to do -

- Use this form if you personally were a relative/dependant of a person who died due to the fault of another person.

AND/OR

- Use this form on behalf of a person/s who were dependant upon a person who died and who is unable to personally complete the information.

- Give your written notice of claim as soon as possible. Your claim could be rejected if the respondent receives Part 1 of the Notice past the earlier of the following two dates:

    - the day nine (9) months after the day of the incident or the first appearance of symptoms of the injury.

    - the day one (1) month after you first instructed a law practice to act on your behalf in seeking damages for the personal injury.

- Keep a copy of the completed form and any other papers included in your claim so that you have your own record.

- You can negotiate with the respondent and settle the claim yourself. It is important for you to know your rights. You could have a dispute with the respondent about the amount payable to you. If you are unsure what to do, a solicitor can advise you what needs to be done and how much it will cost.

- Tear off these three pages of instructions and keep them. They will be useful as a reminder of what you need to do, and also what you can expect to happen with your claim.

The person at fault

It is essential that you name the person or persons you regard at fault in the incident (see question 16) - that is, the person you believe caused the incident – and the reasons why (see question 17).

You must provide each person at fault with a Notice of Claim.

You must place the name and address of the respondent who you are giving the notice to on both Parts 1 and 2 of the Notice of Claim. If the Respondent is the State of Queensland, you must nominate the government Department you consider responsible.

STEPS TO COMPLETE THIS FORM

STEP 1

Please use a black or blue pen and print clearly or type your answers into the form. Start from question 1 and work your way through Part 1 of the form carefully, following the 'go to' instructions. The Form is in sections, and you may not need to complete each one.

Attach separate pages with any further information if there is not enough space on the form.

You must answer questions truthfully and answers must be complete as far as you know or can reasonably find out.

Severe penalties apply where false or misleading information is given.

The statements of fact contained in this notice of claim must be true, correct and complete and be signed in the presence of a Justice of the Peace or a Solicitor.

Before you sign the form read it carefully,* as the declaration of fact at the end of the form is to be made in accordance with the Oaths Act 1867.

STEP 2

Give Part 1 your notice of claim to the person whom you believe caused the incident so that it is received no later than nine (9) months after the date of the incident or first symptoms of injury or within one (1) month of instructing a law practice to act on the your behalf in seeking damages for the personal injury (whichever is the earlier).

If you believe the State of Queensland caused the incident, then the Notice of Claim must nominate the Government Department which you believe caused the incident and be delivered to:

Crown Law
Level 11
State Law Building
50 Ann Street
BRISBANE QLD 4000

Facsimile: (07) 3239 0407

OR

Crown Law
GPO Box 149
BRISBANE QLD 4001

STEP 3

After forwarding Part 1 of the Notice to the person/s, start completing Part 2 of the Notice. Again, please use a black or blue pen and print clearly or type your answers. Work your way through Part 2 of the form carefully, following the "got to" instructions. Attach a separate page with further information if there is not enough space on the form.

You must forward Part 2 of the Notice to the person/s you forwarded Part 1 to within two (2) months of the person's first reply to your Part 1. If they do not reply within 1 month, then you must forward Part 2 of the Notice to them within two months of that date (that is, within three months of the day you first gave them Part 1 of the Notice).

WHAT WILL HAPPEN AFTER YOU SEND YOUR NOTICE OF CLAIM TO THE RESPONDENT

- The respondent is the person or persons who you believe is responsible for the incident and who will receive this completed form.

- You will get a letter from the respondent telling you that your claim has been received. It will include the name and telephone number of a contact person.

- You must be prepared to help the respondent with their investigation of the incident. You may be required to give specific information, photographs, documents or records, and you may have to have a medical examination or assessment. You must also take all reasonable steps to reduce your lost income – for example seeking alternative work.

- The obligation of the respondent in relation to your claims is to:

  - Within one (1) month after receiving Part1 of your notice of claim, advise you if there are any areas in the form where the information is deficient;

  - Within six (6) months of receiving a complying Part 1 notice of claim, advise you whether liability is admitted or denied and if admitted to what percentage;

  - If liability is admitted, advise you the respondent is prepared to accept your offer of settlement if you have made one or invite you to make an offer as soon as possible.
