

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
4 Voices Global Limited	Providing Hope	Victim-survivors	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	Fortitude Valley	4 Voices Global Limited will provide free services at 12 new locations for the length of the contract across the CBD and northern suburbs of Brisbane. These services will provide community, social, employment and digital connection to women experiencing and/or at risk of experiencing domestic violence and homelessness.	$90,000.00
Caxton Legal Centre Inc	Court Plus - Case Management for Persons Using Violence	Perpetrators	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	South Brisbane	Caxton Legal Centre Inc will work with clients who use violence in the Brisbane Magistrates Court to address co-occurring issues such as mental health and alcohol and other drugs. This will be facilitated through a case management approach via a qualified social worker to provide ongoing support, monitor client behaviour and, support behaviour compliance to work towards perpetrator accountability.	$147,522.00
Central Queensland Indigenous Development Limited	Culturally Informed Evaluation of Good Way Change - Indigenous Perpetrator Behaviour Change Program	Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people	Initiative that specifically addresses the needs of diverse people and/or groups	Pialba, Hervey Bay	Central Queensland Indigenous Development Limited will deliver the first Indigenous led, designed and delivered male behaviour change program on Butchulla country (Pialba) that is culturally informed and privileges the voice and lived experience of aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.	$99,600.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
Centre Against Domestic Abuse Inc	Moreton Multicultural Unique Mums	People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds	Expansion or realignment of an existing program or pilot	Caboolture	Centre Against Domestic Abuse Inc will continue to expand on their already established Moreton Multicultural Unique Mums to continue into next year and will work with the University of the Sunshine Coast (USC) to evaluate the approach and the potential to replicate the program across other locations. They will also engage with specialist services to support CALD communities and to facilitate discussions on domestic, family and sexual violence.	$99,000.00
Children by Choice Association Incorporated	Interactive Comprehensive Contraception Resource	Sexual violence sector	Sexual Violence sector enhancement	Statewide	Children by Choice Association Incorporated will develop an interactive web-based tool helping individuals to understand, identify and make informed decisions about their contraception choices.	$137,114.00
Community Living Assn Inc	Mother's with intellectual disability: Parenting with Pride through Healing and Recovery	People with disability	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	Nundah	Community Living Assn Inc will pilot a weekly group session facilitated by social workers to build the capacity of women with diagnosed or suspected intellectual disability who are parents who are survivors and experience ongoing vulnerability of domestic, family and sexual violence.	$97,930.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
Domestic Violence Prevention Centre Gold Coast Inc	IN HER SHOES - a Digital Experience	Domestic and family violence sector	Domestic and family violence sector enhancement	Statewide	Domestic Violence Prevention Centre Gold Coast Inc will expand an experiential workshop that involves the participants walking through as a character who experiences domestic and family violence, with insight into the perpetrator thinking and attitudes from the community.	$96,000.00
True Relationships and Reproductive Health	True Support Service Hub (TSSH)	Victim-survivors	Sexual Violence sector enhancement	Norman Gardens, Rockhampton	True Relationships and Reproductive Health will provide a bespoke specialist support service offering 3 days per week sexual violence/abuse support to victims/survivors. True staff are well placed to screen for and respond to reproductive coercion.	$150,000.00
Gungarde Community Centre Aboriginal Corporation	Gungarde Healing House - stage 1	Perpetrators	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	Cooktown	Gungarde Community Centre Aboriginal Corporation will deliver a pilot project to work with perpetrators of domestic, family and sexual violence in the Cooktown area, with a focus on engaging with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities. The primary goal will be to deliver high quality, evidence based therapeutic interventions, and culturally relevant programs, to ensure perpetrator accountability and promote meaningful behaviour change.	$150,000.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
Helem Yumba	Cultural Safety in Domestic and Family Violence Practice	Domestic and family violence sector	Domestic and family violence sector enhancement	Statewide	Helem Yumba will develop a domestic, family and sexual violence Cultural Safety Framework and associated policies, training, tools and guidelines to drive the delivery of culturally safe service responses to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and families impacted by domestic and family violence.	$119,018.00
James Cook University	Social Work and Dentistry collaborate across disciplines and sectors to develop innovative resources to build dental workforce capability and facilitate best practice in recognising and responding to domestic and sexual violence across Queensland.	Other: Dental workforce, JCU, FNQ, Qld and Australia	Expansion or realignment of an existing program or pilot	Cairns	James Cook University project aims to build dental workforce capabilities across Queensland and enable best practice in recognizing and responding to domestic and sexual violence (DSV) through the development of dentistry-specific educational materials available through an online portal.	$149,768.00
Kirrawe Indigenous Corporation	Tiddas Talkin	Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people Young People	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	Loganholme	Kirrawe Indigenous Corporation will implement a community-led, place-based intervention and prevention strategy for First Nations young people aged 14-17 years. The workshops will be run by a First Nations facilitators and including local Elders across four locations.	$80,150.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
LGBTI Legal Service Inc	LGBTIQA+ DV Legal Services	LGBTIQA+ communities	Initiative that specifically addresses the needs of diverse people and/or groups	Statewide	LGBTI Legal Service Inc will deliver a project intended to address the gap in the provision of legal services to the LGBTIQA+ community implementing several support services and initiatives including the development of resources, improved stakeholder engagement and starting staff and improve community awareness of legal services available.	$148,599.00
Lives Lived Well limited	“Recognise. Reflect. Respect”	Perpetrators	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	Statewide	Lives Lived Well Limited will deliver a co-response model to address the intersection of men’s use of violence, use of alcohol and other drugs and ongoing mental health to enhance accountability and change behaviour.	$103,712.00
Micah Projects ltd	Establishing a Tech Abuse Detection and Assessment Service	Victim-survivors	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	West End	Micah Projects and Concentric Concepts will establish a safe and accessible Tech Abuse Detection and Assessment Service for people experiencing Domestic and Family Violence across Brisbane and the surrounding areas.	$148,850.00
Multicultural Australia ltd	Starting Safe, Staying Safe	People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds	Expansion or realignment of an existing program or pilot	Woolloongabba	Multicultural Australia Ltd will develop a holistic and replicable model to equip and engage cultural support workers and bi-cultural workers to take an active role in domestic and family violence prevention through their engagement with newly arrived refugees and CALD communities.	$128,797.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
NPA Family and Community Services Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Corporation	You have hit a rock: Women talking, walking, supporting and standing together against home and community based violence	Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	Bamaga, Cape York	NPA Family and Community Services Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Corporation will facilitate two women's groups each week in the Northern Peninsula Area focused on gendered social, familial, political and economic relationships and how each of these contribute to gendered violence.	$150,000.00
Palm Island Community Company Ltd	Women's Support Groups	Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people	Domestic and family violence sector enhancement	Palm Island	Palm Island Community Company Ltd will run two support groups for female victim-survivors of Domestic, Family and Sexual Violence, one targeting women under 25, and one Open.	$99,000.00
Queensland Aids Council Inc – trading as Queensland Council for LGBTI Health	QLD LGBTIQ+ violence prevention capacity development	LGBTIQ+ communities	Initiative that specifically addresses the needs of diverse people and/or groups	Statewide	Queensland Council for LGBTI Health will continue to engage in community consultation to understand community needs and expectation of violence prevention responses and services, and to build the capacity of the sector to meet these needs for LGBTIQ+ people. This will be facilitated through the Queer and Trans Workers Against Violence (QTWAV) group.	$93,780.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
Relationships Australia (Qld)	Stopping Family Violence - Working with Men from CALD Communities	People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds	Initiative that specifically addresses the needs of diverse people and/or groups	Spring Hill	Relationships Australia (Qld) will pilot an alternative approach to men's behaviour change programs that seeks to overcome cultural and linguistic barriers to access. The aim is to reduce family violence across the Brisbane region by working with men who use violence and supporting the partners and ex-partners who experience violence, in culturally safe ways that prioritise ongoing safety and risk assessment.	$150,000.00
TASC National limited	Rural Motherhood initiative	Victim-survivors Perpetrators	Innovative new service delivery model or pilot program	South Toowoomba	TASC National Limited will develop and deliver a pilot group-based intervention for both fathers and mothers in rural mining communities, designed to prevent gender-based violence against women and children and create behavioural change and accountability and to support victim-survivors.	$149,967.00
Warringu Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders Corporation	Model of Care Framework for Domestic and Family Violence in First Nations Women's Shelters	Domestic and family violence sector	Domestic and family violence sector enhancement	Manoora	Warringu Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders Corporation will develop a framework to build a holistic model of care within the first nations domestic and family violence women's shelters.	$150,000.00

Keeping Women Safe from Violence 2023
Organisation name	Project title	Target audience	NPA focus area	Project delivery location	Description of activity	Funding
Wide Bay Advocacy Inc	Bundaberg Street Law - Pilot Expansion	Victim-survivors	Expansion or realignment of an existing program or pilot	Bundaberg	Wide Bay Advocacy Inc will expand on their pilot initiative, Bundaberg Street Law, consisting of pro bono legal outreach clinics for people experiencing or at risk of homelessness, prioritising women who are victim-survivors of domestic, family and sexual violence.	$150,000.00
Women's and Men's Alliance Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Corporation	Healing on Country	Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people	Bespoke, targeted initiative that supports the needs of children as victims in their own right	Strathpine	Women's and Men's Alliance Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Corporation will pilot a group program for Indigenous young people who have experienced family violence.	$146,000.00