

Successful recipients - Responding to COVID-19 in the sexual domestic and family violence sectors grants program
Organisation name	Project Title	Project Location	Amount	Description
The Centre For Women & Co. Ltd.	Men & Co. Services Support Team	Redlands including Southern Moreton Bay Islands	$149,999	Provision of additional support to men and young men and their aggrieved, in the community who have been impacted by COVID-19 and are actively seeking mental health and DFV support.
North Queensland Combined Women's Services Inc	TSASS.org.au	Aitkenvale	$123,032	Delivery of online face-to-face e-services and a series of short videos and resources that will inform, assist and enhance client autonomy. These resources will also be utilised in community education programs to increase public knowledge and understanding of sexual violence.
YFS Ltd	Adapting and expanding perpetrator behaviour change programs in Logan and Beaudesert to respond to the impacts of COVID-19	Logan and Beaudesert	$123,261	A collaborative project with local stakeholders to trial an online provision model for perpetrators and female respondents seeking support.
Partners 4 Health Ltd trading as Brisbane North PHN	Enhancing the frontline primary care response to domestic and family violence (DFV) to improve outcomes across North Brisbane	Brisbane North	$140,000	Development of resources and training for primary health care teams to ensure they are well supported and have the knowledge, skill base and access to resources and specialist services to provide trauma sensitive care to their clients impacted by DFV.
The Baptist Union of Queensland - Carinity	Children's Domestic and Family Violence Counselling Program	Greenslopes	$100,000	Expansion of Children's DFV Counselling Program and provision of support to families through case work and collaboration with the integrated response system.
Helem Yumba Incorporated	Empowering young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander to identify and address the impact of COVID-19, particularly in relation to Coercive Control and Technology-Assisted Abuse.	Rockhampton	$149,051	Provision of appropriate, effective and culturally safe. services to young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people impacted by DFV.
Domestic Violence Prevention Centre Gold Coast	Improving Access to Information and Resources	Gold Coast	$63,000	Development of a series of video based information about domestic and family violence that includes close captioning that can accessed online to ensure women isolated by COVID-19, and service providers can access accurate information in a non-text format.

Successful recipients - Responding to COVID-19 in the sexual domestic and family violence sectors grants program
Organisation name	Project Title	Project Location	Amount	Description
Griffith University	Preventing Violence in the Torres Strait through positive Bystander Action.	Torres Strait Islands	$114,793	In partnership with the Torres Strait Island Social Justice Interagency Service (SJIS), Griffith University's MATE Bystander Team will adapt and support the delivery of the MATE Train the Trainer bystander intervention training to DV Champions from across the Torres Strait.
Kyabra Community Association Inc	Creating Online Virtual Information Delivering (COVID) Safe Options for Women and Children	Runcorn	$80,431	Implementation of systems that allow staff to provide supports remotely to women and children in need, including updating website resources and increasing functionality allowing women to receive information and advice online. This project will also involve providing information on cyber safety on the website and delivering education programs to staff and women on mobile phone safety.
Mater Misericordiae Ltd	Youth Alcohol and Other Drug COVID 19:Increasing capacity of frontline youth alcohol and other drug workers and growing evidence in addressing sexual, domestic and family violence and abuse	South Brisbane	$118,291	S&DFV specialist support to staff through education and training develop new skills and build confidence to support and respond to young people and their families accessing Clarence Street services who are affected by S&DFV and development of resources specifically related to client case management and strengthening of referral pathways.
South Burnett CTC	Safety for High Risk Domestic Violence	Kingaroy	$79,000	Integrated support for women and children in high risk situations needing to access safety.
Inala Community House	Building Capacity for Domestic Violence Informed Practice	Inala	$60,791	Building the capability of front line workers at the Family Intervention and Out of Home Care Services to work in a DV informed way by undertaking Safe and Together Training and, in partnership with Red Rose Foundation, development of a specialised training package targeted to 'carers' of children who have experienced domestic and family violence, and provision of client-led Women's Group Programs.

Successful recipients - Responding to COVID-19 in the sexual domestic and family violence sectors grants program
Organisation name	Project Title	Project Location	Amount	Description
Red Rose Foundation Ltd	Online Support and Training Project	Brisbane	$149,500	Development of a comprehensive IT strategy that will allow the delivery of Training, publication of research and resources across one consolidated platform including online support groups for appropriate clients, online resources, training and community education.
Centre Against Sexual Violence Inc.	Safer Islands Project: Providing Sexual Assault Counselling Services to the Redland Islands during COVID-19	Redlands Islands	$91,961	Enhancing current sexual assault counselling services provided by CASV in the Redlands community by providing outreach community engagement and sexual assault counselling to women in the Redland Islands community.
Wide Bay Sexual Assault Service Incorporated	COVID-19 Meeting the Community's Need	Wide Bay	$150,000	Additional specialised sexual abuse services and community education.
North Queensland Women's Legal Service	Remote Volunteer Legal Advice Service	Townsville	$80,000	Provision of timely, high quality legal advice for women living in all communities across the top half of Queensland and referrals to relevant community support services, to ensure the legal needs of women and impacts of COVID 19 can be addressed in an holistic and safe way.
Access Community Services Ltd	Beyond 99 Steps	Logan	$149,582	Additional counselling, court support, case-management, information and referral, advocacy and community education and sector development to mainstream organisations in responding culturally appropriately to CALD women experiencing DFV.
Centre Against Domestic Abuse Inc	Parenting, Wellbeing and Connection Project	Caboolture	$74,011	Opportunities for connection/reconnection with service providers and opportunities to engage socially with peers for young women who are pregnant and/or parenting in the region in order to combat the impacts of increased and ongoing isolation and disruption to service delivery experienced as a result of COVID-19.

Successful recipients - Responding to COVID-19 in the sexual domestic and family violence sectors grants program
Organisation name	Project Title	Project Location	Amount	Description
Pormpur Paanthu Aboriginal Corporation	Domestic and Family Violence Increased Capacity	Pormpuraaw	$144,360	Increased capacity to deliver greater levels of DFV services and protection to those highly vulnerable Indigenous women and children in the remote Pormpuraaw community including increased DV night patrols technology upgrades and community awareness engagement.
Strong Communities Ltd	Empowered Parents (Despite Pandemic)	Gladstone Region	$56,387	A series of workshops across regional and remote Queensland for Women affected by Domestic and Family violence and also for perpetrators, which includes the evidence-based Circle of Security Parenting Program and additional trauma informed support and referrals to support participants and caregivers. and additional support for Gladstone's Coordinated Community Response to Domestic and Family Violence Inc (CCRDFV).
The Trustee for KYC Trust	ME!	Caboolture South	$77,737	Provision of a variety of therapeutic individual and group work sessions to support young clients with similar needs to form a safe peer support system, working alongside Jabani Jinna Indigenous Corporation with culturally appropriate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander support to assist with increasing awareness of safety and wellbeing and accessing services.
Caxton Legal Centre Inc.	Covid19 Family and Domestic Violence Legal Assistance	South Brisbane	$110,416	An extension of Covid-19 domestic and family violence legal assistance services to respond to the ongoing demand for and complexities associated with delivering frontline advice and casework services during the Covid-19 pandemic using a range of service delivery modes that overcome access barriers.
Neami Limited	North Queensland DFV Post-Crisis Support Program	North Queensland	$60,000	Post-crisis support will be provided to survivors of family and domestic violence who are no longer in crisis but are susceptible to future violence and/or victimisation, delivered multimodally, ensuring continuity of support. Delivery of Shark Cage training package for professionals in North Queensland supporting women, post-crisis.