of 85 NEWTON DRIVE, SOUTH BRISBANE in the State of Queensland

swear/affirm that LANCE BOYLE of 165 HICKEY AVENUE FORTITUDE VALLEY

1. has threatened:

- (a) to assault or to do any bodily injury to the complainant or to any person under the care or charge of the complainant
- (b) to procure any other person to assault or to do any bodily injury to the complainant or to any person under the care or charge of the complainant

- (d) to procure any other person to destroy or damage any property of the complainant and the complainant is in fear of the person complained against namely LANCE BOYLE

OR

- 2. that the intentional conduct of _____ (the defendant) directed at the complainant has caused the complainant to fear that the defendant will destroy or damage any property of the complainant.

The grounds of the complaint are:

I work at XXX Suppliers and Manufacturers in West End, where I am the assistant manager.

I have known Mr Boyle for about four years and we worked together at XXX Suppliers and Manufacturers during that time. We were both Team Leaders. In November 2011 there was a vacancy advertised for the assistant manager of the business. Mr Boyle and I both applied for this role and I was the successful applicant and was duly promoted. Mr Boyle believed he was the best person for the job and told me several times. I was appointed and began working as the assistant manager as of 25th November 2011. On the 26th November 2011 Mr Boyle submitted his resignation from the company.

On the 29th November 2011 I was walking to my car and noticed that someone was standing near the car, when I got closer I realised that the person was Mr Boyle. When he saw me he walked up to me quickly and I noticed he looked very agitated and was yelling and screaming "You are a thief and a back stabber. I will punch your head in. You stole the job that was meant to be mine! I was the best person for the job and you know it." He then ran away down the street. I was a bit shaken and I have seen him cranky like this before when things at work have upset him. I then went home. I did not say anything to anyone at work about this.

On the 2nd December 2011 when I was walking to my car he was standing beside my car. This time he told me that I had better watch out and that he would get a metal bar and do some serious damage to my car and also to my face. He then walked away. He knows where I live.

Because of these events I am fearful that he will carry out these threats. I am worried that he will continue to harass me.
