Part A—Requirements

This form must be completed by interstate licence holders seeking to sell/supply artisan spirits at a promotional event in Queensland.

A promotional event is an event held primarily for the purpose of promoting produce from a particular region or the hospitality industry. Examples of events held primarily for the purpose of promoting produce from a particular region—craft market, farmers market, agricultural show, food and wine event. Examples of events held primarily for the purpose of promoting the hospitality industry—trade fair, craft beer festival.

OLGR requires applications to be completed in full prior to commencing processing of the application. This means that any application lodged without full documentation attached will not be accepted. Applications will be returned to the applicant if questions are not completed correctly. If the application is returned, the lodgement date will be taken from the date the application is resubmitted. Applications that are not lodged with OLGR at least 21 days in advance of the event will not be considered.

Your application will not be accepted unless the following requirements are completed. (use checklist below):

- payment of the prescribed fee
- promotional event organiser consent
- police endorsement (prior to lodging this application)
- council endorsement (prior to lodging this application) if the event is to be held in a public place (e.g. a park) or a venue controlled by the council.
