QUEENSLAND GOVERNMENT VACANCIES GAZETTE

The Queensland Public Service is committed to equal opportunity in employment. Selection will be given on the basis of merit only and fair consideration will be given to all applicants. The Queensland State Government's policy is to seek to retain skilled staff. Registered employees who apply for an advertised job will be considered before other applicants. The symbol (h) appears next to vacancies where an exemption from this requirement applies. Employees are to indicate in their application for the advertised job that they are registered with the Office of the Public Service Commissioner. The Queensland Public Service Commissioner is committed to equal opportunity in employment. Selection will be given on the basis of merit only and fair consideration will be given to all applicants.

CONTINUOUS APPLICANT POOLS

A continuous applicant pool allows you to apply for jobs within an occupation where vacancies are regularly available. This means that agencies can 'dip' into the pool for suitable applicants as soon as they have a vacancy. You can submit or refresh your application at any time. If you are refreshing your application, make sure that you indicate this either on your email or, if sending by post, in a covering letter. In search results, continuous applicant pools can be identified by 'Ongoing' in the 'Closes' column of a search result.

Note: If a continuous applicant pool is closing, applicants will be notified two weeks prior to this date. Applications may be used for up to six months after the pool closes.

MULTI-AGENCY POOLS

Some Queensland Government agencies are on the lookout for people to fill similar jobs or occupations at the same time. Some of these jobs have a fixed closing date and others are ongoing (continuous applicant pools). With multi-agency pools, you only have to apply once to access job opportunities across participating agencies. Your application will then be able to be viewed and assessed by all the agencies in that pool - or, if you prefer, you can specify that you want to be considered only for particular agencies. Make sure you check the specific vacancy to find out how each pool works.

HOW TO APPLY

When you have found the job you would like to apply for.

1. You can phone for a copy of the information kit or you can download the documents from the Smart Jobs and Careers website at www.jobs.qld.gov.au. The information kit will include:
  - the position or job description detailing: background of the department or work area; roles and responsibilities, and selection criteria
  - a job information package, outlining the procedure for preparing and sending in your application, and
  - an application cover sheet.
2. Do your homework - research the agency to understand the background to the job.
3. Prepare your application. This should include your:
  - completed cover sheet (available on jobs online or in the kit mailed to you)
  - covering letter
  - resumé / curriculum vitae
  - names and contact details of (2) referees, and
  - responses to the selection criteria if required.
4. Mail or email your application (Details of where and how are available in either the job description or the job information package).

Check with the job vacancy contact person if you are unsure about how or where to submit your application or how many copies to send. Make sure you send your application by the closing date. If you don't, it may not be accepted. Once your application is received, you will usually be sent a written acknowledgement.

When applying for Continuous Applicant Pools, please check each vacancy for application instructions.

BREACHES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

A breach of the Code of Conduct may be one of the following:

Meeting breach A breach of a councillor's obligations at a meeting of council or a committee of council.

Minor breach A breach of the ethical obligations (other than a statutory obligation shown above), or of any additional ethical or behavioural obligations that a council includes in its Code of Conduct.

Repeat breach The fourth and subsequent meeting and/or minor breaches within six months are repeat breaches.

Statutory breach A breach of one of the obligations in the Act, which are listed above.

HOW TO MAKE A COMPLAINT ABOUT A BREACH OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

A complaint about a possible minor breach or statutory breach of the Code of Conduct may be made by anyone, including a councillor. Complaints about a meeting breach may be made only by a councillor.

The procedure to complain about an alleged breach of the Code of Conduct varies depending on the type of conduct breach. The types of conduct breach are defined in the Act (s.250M). A complaint may be made in the following ways:

Complaint about a meeting breach If a councillor breaches an obligation under a code or a local law about behaviour at a meeting of council or a council committee, a complaint may be made by a councillor who is present at the meeting. The complaint must be made to the person chairing the meeting (s.250 O).

Complaint about a minor breach A complaint about a breach of non-statutory obligations in the Code of Conduct should be made under the council's general complaints process (s.250M (2), s.250R).<sup>1</sup> A complaint about a possible repeat of a minor breach is made in the same way. A complaint may be made to council by [insert council's contact details to make a complaint]

Complaint about a repeat breach A complaint about an alleged repeat breach may only be made by using the procedure outlined herein for meeting and minor breaches. After a complaint is made about a meeting breach or a minor breach, the local government will assess whether the complaint is a repeat breach (s.250Q(3) and s.250S (4)).

Complaint about statutory breach A complaint about a breach of a councillor's statutory obligations may be made in writing to the chief executive officer of the local government. Making a complaint to the chief executive officer does not prevent a person from making a complaint to the Crime and Misconduct Commission or the Ombudsman (s.250T).

COMPLIANCE

Section 243A of the Act requires councillors to comply with the obligations stated in the code of conduct, which provides for breaches of the code to be dealt with under the Act, and confirms that if an act, omission or breach is an offence under the provisions of the Act, court proceeding may also be taken for the offence.

<sup>1</sup> All local governments are required by s.501D of the Act to have a general complaints process.

Department of Local Government, Sport and Recreation*Explanatory Information for the Model Code of Conduct for Councillors

Local governments are required by the Local Government Act 1993 (LGA) to adopt a code of conduct for councillors which sets out behaviours and responsibilities for councillors.

Local governments may choose to adopt their own code of conduct, provided that it is consistent with the requirements in section 250F and the process set out in section 250J and section 250K.

Alternatively local governments are able to adopt the model code of conduct gazetted by the Minister for Local Government as their code of conduct. If a local government has not adopted a code of conduct within 6 months of each quadrennial election (section 250C), then the model code of conduct applies to councillors of the local government.

The new Model Code of Conduct is current from the date it is gazetted and replaces the December 2005 Model Code of Conduct. For a copy of the new Model Code of Conduct for Councillors please refer to the Resources section on the Department of Local Government, Sport and Recreation's website at www.localgovernment.qld.gov.au.

New Local Governments after 15 March 2008

The Local Government Reform Implementation Regulation 2008 (the Regulation) provides that new local governments following the 15 March 2008 elections, will be taken to have adopted the model code of conduct from changeover day (15 March 2008). The gazettal of the new Model Code of Conduct prior to changeover day means that it will apply in all newly merged local governments. Attachment 1 lists these local governments.

A new local government may, after 15 March 2008 and before the 2012 quadrennial election, adopt a different code of conduct for its councillors. The Regulation also provides that a new local government may adopt a former local government's code of conduct without the public notification processes in section 250J and section 250K. If the local government does not make a code of conduct, the model code of conduct will continue to apply.

Continuing or Adjusted Local Governments after 15 March 2008

For those continuing or adjusted local governments, the current code of conduct will continue to apply for six months unless the local government adopts a new code (including the model code) in that period. If a continuing or adjusted local government does not adopt a code during this period, then at the end of the six month period, the local government will be taken to have adopted the new Model Code of Conduct.
