

Restricted person, restricted employment laws

A restricted person cannot rely on an exemption to work with kids.

A restricted person is somebody who:

- has been issued a negative notice
- has a suspended blue card
- is a disqualified person
- has been charged with a disqualifying offence that has not been finalised
- is the subject of an adverse interstate Working with Children check decision that is in effect.

Restricted employment refers to situations or exemptions that allow a person to work with children without a blue card, such as if they are:

- a parent volunteering
- a volunteer who is under 18
- paid or unpaid staff who work in regulated child-related employment for not more than 7 days in a calendar year
- a person with disability who is employed at a place where the person also receives disability services or NDIS supports or services
- a secondary school student on work experience who carries out disability related work under the direct supervision of a person who holds a blue or exemption card.
