Acquisition of Land Act 1967

TAKING OF EASEMENT NOTICE BY CAIRNS
REGIONAL COUNCIL (No 01) 2022

Short title

1. This notice may be cited as the Taking of Easement Notice by Cairns Regional Council (No 01) 2022.

Easement taken [ss.6 and 15D of the Act]

2. The easement described in Schedule 2 is taken by Cairns Regional Council for drainage purposes and vests in Cairns Regional Council on and from 26 August 2022.

Rights and obligations

3. That the rights and obligations conferred and imposed by the easement include the matters set out in Schedule 1.

SCHEDULE 1

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION1.1 Definitions

The following expressions have the following meanings:

business day means any day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday consideration means the amount specified in item 6 of the form 9 easement drainage means the conveyance, discharge, passage of rainwater, storm water, groundwater, overland flow of water and drainage of all kinds easement means this form 20 schedule, the form 9 easement to which this schedule is annexed and each annexure described in this form 20 easement area means the land described as the servient tenement in item 2 of the form 9 easement equipment means equipment and vehicles of all kinds which are reasonably required in connection with the construction, keeping or maintenance of the works upon the easement area

grantee means the grantee named in item 5 of the form 9 easement or any entity to which the benefit of this easement is transferred from time to time and includes those authorised by the grantee (expressly or impliedly) for the purpose of exercising the grantee's rights or powers or performing its obligations under this easement (including, for example, the employees, agents and contractors of the grantee)

grantor means the registered owner of the land named in item 1 of the form 9 easement from time to time and includes those authorised by the grantor (expressly or impliedly) for the purpose of exercising the grantor's rights or powers or performing its obligations under this easement (including, for example, the employees, agents or contractors of the grantor)

land means the lot described in item 2 of the form 9 easement (of which the easement area forms part and includes the easement area)

servient tenement means the easement area statute means any statute, regulation, proclamation, ordinance or local law works means the infrastructure required for drainage including, drains, channels, culverts, pipeline, pumps and pump stations, standpipes and other structures, tanks, manholes, machinery and all appurtenant works above or below ground, and associated infrastructure erected on the easement area or connected to or used in conjunction with drainage and any replacement works which the grantee (acting reasonably) from time to time determines are reasonably required

1.2 Interpretation

In this easement unless the context requires otherwise:

- a) a reference to a document includes the document as modified from time to time and any document replacing it;
- b) a reference to a party is to a party to this easement and a reference to a party to a document includes the party's executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns and substitutes;

- c) if something is to be or may be done on a day that is not a business day then it must be done on the next business day;
- d) the word "person" includes a natural person, partnership, body corporate, association, governmental or local authority, agency and any body or entity whether incorporated or not;
- e) a reference to all or any part of a statute includes that statute as amended, consolidated, re-enacted or replaced from time to time;
- f) a reference to time is to Queensland, Australia time;
- g) a reference to any agency or body, if that agency or body ceases to exist or is reconstituted, renamed or replaced or has its powers or functions removed (defunct body), means the agency or body which performs most closely the functions of the defunct body;
- h) any agreements, representation, warranty or indemnity by two or more parties (whether those parties are included in the same defined term or not) is for the benefit of them jointly and severally; and
- i) a reference to a party includes its contractors, agents, servants, employees and all other expressly or impliedly authorised by it.

2. GRANTEE'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS2.1 Grant

The grantor grants to the grantee, in exchange for the consideration, an easement over the easement area for drainage purposes, and for such other purposes contemplated by the terms of this easement including for the installation of the works.

2.2 Grantee's rights and obligations

In the exercise of its rights and powers under clause 2.1, the grantee may:

- a) at any time:
 - i) enter, exit and remain on the easement area with or without vehicles, plant and equipment of any kind;
 - ii) construct, extend, deepen, widen, inspect, maintain and repair the works;
 - iii) replace any works with new works;
 - iv) excavate, sink shafts, remove and dispose of soil;
 - v) construct and maintain on the easement area such access and other appurtenant works as the grantee considers reasonably necessary;
 - vi) do such other works and things through, across or in the easement area which are incidental to the proper exercise of the rights granted to the grantee by this easement, (but the grantee is not entitled to make any variations or alterations which would change the nature of the works from their primary purpose of drainage).

- b) temporarily use other parts of the land as may be reasonably required by it in order to carry out, keep or maintain the works on the easement area or to gain access to the easement area for the purposes of carrying out or maintaining the works;
- c) take down improvements on the land (including, for example, fences, sheds, outbuildings and structures of all types) as may be necessary in the reasonable exercise of its rights under this easement and to repair and reinstate such improvements to the same condition subject to clause 4.3, and where the grantee reinstates a fence, it may install a gate of a similar style and standard as the existing fence and such gate will form part of the fence and become the property of the grantor and will be maintained by the grantor thereafter;
- d) clear and remove vegetation upon or from the easement area;
- e) temporarily store equipment and materials and create minor stockpiles on the easement area for the purpose of the works;
- f) temporarily restrict access to parts of the land and/or easement area (including by fencing off) but only as may be necessary in the reasonable exercise of its rights under this easement;
- g) remain upon the easement area for however long the grantee considers to be reasonably necessary consistent with the purposes for which this easement is granted; and
- h) undertake the works on, below and above the surface of the easement area but only as may be necessary in the reasonable exercise of its rights under this easement.

2.3 No obligation to use

The grantee is not obliged to use the easement area for the purposes of this easement nor to exercise or do any or all the powers or things contained in this easement but shall be at liberty to do so from time to time as and when, and to such extent, as it may see fit.

2.4 No obligation to fence

The grantee is not required or obliged to fence or to contribute to the fencing of any part or parts of the boundaries of the easement area.

2.5 Conditions of exercise

In exercising any of its rights and powers under this easement, the grantee must ensure that:

- a) the works are properly carried out in a good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with all applicable permits, standards and laws;
- b) as little inconvenience as is reasonably practicable is caused to the grantor;
- c) the surface of any part of the land which has been used by the grantee for access to the easement area is left in good condition and any damage is made good;
- d) any improvements taken down to enable access to and from the easement area are reinstated to as good a condition as they were in before they were taken down;
- e) all applicable laws, standards and statutes regarding occupational health and safety are complied with; and
- f) except in cases of emergency when no notice is required, reasonable prior notice is given to the grantor of its intention to exercise the power or right and the way in which the grantee intends to access the easement area via the land if necessary.

2.6 Insurance

- a) The grantee will effect and keep current at all times an appropriate public risk liability insurance policy naming the grantee as the insured covering legal liability for any loss of or damage to any property and for the injury including death to any person arising out of anything done or omitted under the terms of this easement on the easement area and against all claims, demands, proceedings, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever in respect thereof subject to the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.

- b) To remove any doubt, the requirements of this clause 2.6 will also apply to any other area of the land used by the grantee in the exercise of this easement.

2.7 Indemnity

- a) Without limiting any other provision of this easement, the grantee shall indemnify the grantor from all claims, losses and expenses which the grantor sustains or for which the grantor is held liable arising directly out of or in connection with:
 - i) any breach by the grantee of this easement;
 - ii) any negligent act or omission by the grantee in its use of the land or easement area;
 save to the extent the claim, loss or expense is a result of the negligent acts or omissions of the grantor.
- b) If the grantor is made a party to any litigation commenced by or against the grantee or otherwise arising directly or indirectly out of the grantee's use of the land or easement area, then the grantee must pay to the grantor on demand all legal fees and outlays on a solicitor and own client basis reasonably incurred by grantor in connection with that litigation.
- c) This indemnity in this clause survives the termination of this easement.

3. GRANTOR'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

3.1 Grantor's right to use

Subject to the provisions of this easement, the grantor is entitled to use the easement area for purposes and in ways which are not inconsistent with:

- a) the rights and powers of the grantee under this easement; and
- b) the primary function of drainage and the works.

3.2 Grantor's obligations

- a) The grantor must at its own expense:
 - i) maintain the easement area in good condition at all times and ensure no accumulation of rubbish or debris occurs within the easement area which would restrict, obstruct or interfere with the works or the purpose for which this easement is granted; and
 - ii) undertake regular mowing in relation to the easement area where required.
- b) The grantor must not do anything or allow anything to be done which would, or would be likely to:
 - i) unreasonably prevent, restrict or otherwise adversely affect the exercise by the grantee of any of its rights or powers under this easement; or
 - ii) damage the drainage or works, affect the structural integrity of the works or inhibit the ability of the works to function in accordance with their designed purpose of drainage.
- c) To avoid doubt, clause 3.2 b) includes an obligation that the grantor must not without the grantee's prior written approval, which must not be unreasonably withheld:
 - i) remove or interfere with the drainage or works including any electrical cabling, retaining walls or any ancillary works used or connected to the works; or
 - ii) erect any buildings or structures of any type on the easement area; or
 - iii) install concrete, bitumen or other pavement or driveways in the easement area or gardens or landscaping involving concrete, brick or other permanent materials; or
 - iv) stockpile or permit the stockpiling of any soil, sand, gravel or other substances or materials in the easement area which would in any way obstruct or interfere with the works and/or the rights of the grantee under this easement; or
 - v) execute or construct any excavations, drains, channels, roads or other works of any kind in the easement area or dig or open up the surface or sub-surface of the easement area.

3.3 Indemnity

- a) Without limiting any other provision of this easement, the grantor must indemnify the grantee from all claims, losses and expenses which the grantee sustains or for which the grantee is held liable arising in any manner howsoever out of or in connection with:
 - i) any breach by the grantor of this easement; or
 - ii) any negligent act or omission by the grantor in its use of the land or easement area; save to the extent the claim, loss or expense is a result of the negligent acts or omissions of the grantee.
- b) If the grantee is made a party to any litigation commenced by or against the grantor or otherwise arising directly or indirectly out of the grantor's use of the land or easement area, then the grantor must pay to the grantee on demand all legal fees and outlays on a solicitor and own client basis reasonably incurred by grantee in connection with that litigation.
- c) This indemnity in this clause survives the termination of this easement.

3.4 Co-operation

The grantor must:

- a) do all things reasonably necessary to enable the grantee to exercise its rights and powers under this easement; and
- b) not do anything which will prevent or restrain the grantee from exercising its rights and powers under this easement in a reasonable and efficient way.

4. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF WORKS

4.1 Grantee's obligation

- a) The grantee must maintain the works in good repair and condition.
- b) The costs of repair and maintenance of the works must be paid by the grantee except where:
 - i) the need for the repair or maintenance arises because of the breach by the grantor of an obligation under this easement in which case the costs are payable by the grantor; or
 - ii) this easement expressly states otherwise.

4.2 Removal of the works

The grantee may at its discretion take up and remove the works or any part of the works at any time during the term of the easement and will make good any damage caused in such removal at its costs.

4.3 Removal of unauthorised improvements

In the event, a building or structure, other material or thing are erected, installed, placed or located on the easement area without the prior written consent of the grantee not to be unreasonably withheld (unauthorised improvements), the grantee in addition to any other remedies and after giving reasonable notice to the grantor of its intention to remove the unauthorised improvements, may remove or demolish the unauthorised improvements, and:

- a) dispose of the unauthorised improvements and any demolition material in any way the grantee deems fit without being liable to account to the grantor; and
- b) the grantee may recover from the grantor including by the commencement of legal proceedings, the costs of such removal including any other costs it has incurred in the disposal of the unauthorised improvements.

5. DEFAULT

5.1 Remedies

Subject to clause 5.2, if a party to this easement is in default of its obligations under it, and that default is not remedied within a reasonable time after written notice from the other party specifying (in reasonable detail) the default, the non-defaulting party may, at its election:

- a) do anything that is reasonably necessary to correct the default; and

- b) recover from the defaulting party, the costs which it reasonably and properly incurs in doing so.

5.2 Emergency action

In cases of emergency or where there is a likelihood that a failure to act promptly will result in imminent injury, damage or loss to any person or property, the non-defaulting party is entitled to exercise the rights in clauses 5.1 a) and b) without first having given a notice and opportunity to remedy the default in accordance with that clause.

5.3 No liability

To avoid doubt, a party which properly exercises its rights under clause 5.1 or clause 5.2 does not incur liability to the other party merely by reason of doing so.

5.4 Ancillary rights

To avoid doubt, a party exercising its rights under clause 5.1 or clause 5.2 may enter upon and bring equipment onto the land and carry out work as may be reasonably required to correct the default.

6. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- a) If a dispute arises in connection with this easement, then a party may only deal with that dispute in the manner set out in this clause.
- b) A party to a dispute which arises in connection with this easement may give to the other party or parties to the dispute a notice specifying the dispute and requiring its resolution under this clause.
- c) Within 14 days after a notice is given (or such longer period as is agreed in writing by the parties to the dispute) each party to the dispute must use its best efforts to resolve the dispute in good faith.
- d) If despite the parties' best efforts the dispute is not resolved within 14 days after notice a party may by notice to the other party or parties to the dispute, refer the dispute to be determined by a Queensland Law Society approved mediator appointed by agreement between the parties or failing agreement, by the president of the Queensland Law Society at the request of the grantor or grantee.
- e) If the dispute is not resolved within 28 days after the appointment of the mediator, either party may commence legal proceedings to resolve the dispute.
- f) The cost of the mediator will be borne equally by the grantor and grantee.
- g) The provision of this clause does not prevent any party from obtaining any injunctive, declaratory or other interlocutory relief from a Court which may be urgently required.

7. GENERAL

7.1 Ownership of works

- a) To avoid doubt, the grantee at all times retains ownership of the works and any other matters or things which it brings onto the land, irrespective of their attachment to the land and even though they may otherwise be considered to be fixtures or fixed improvements to the land.
- b) Section 85B (2) of the Land Title Act 1994 (Qld) does not apply.

7.2 Passing of obligations

- a) The burden and benefit of the grantor's covenants and obligations under this easement pass with the easement area so that any person who from time to time comprises the grantor is only liable to perform the grantor's obligations and entitled to exercise the grantor's benefits under this easement while that person is the registered owner of the easement area.
- b) The burden of the grantee's covenants and obligations under this easement pass to the person who is, from time to time, entitled to the benefit of this easement so that any person who from time to time comprises the grantee is only liable to perform the grantee's obligations under this easement while that person is entitled to the benefit of this easement.

- c) Nothing in this clause affects a person's obligations or liabilities arising while it is the grantor or grantee under this easement.
- 7.3 Costs
- a) Unless agreed otherwise in writing with the grantee, the grantor must pay all duty, registration fees and survey costs of and incidental to the preparation, execution and registration of this easement in the Queensland Titles Registry.
- b) The grantor must promptly do all things reasonably required of it by the grantee to enable the creation and registration in the Queensland Titles Registry of this easement (including, for example, arranging the consent of any mortgagee of the land to the grant of this easement).
- 7.4 Nature of obligations
- a) Any provision in this easement which binds more than one person, binds all of those persons jointly and each of them severally.
- b) Each obligation imposed on a party by this easement in favour of another is a separate obligation. Unless specified otherwise, the performance of one obligation is not dependent or conditional on the performance of any other obligation.
- 7.5 No adverse construction
This easement, and any provision of this easement, is not to be construed to the disadvantage of a party because that party was responsible for its preparation.
- 7.6 Further assurances
A party, at its own expense and within a reasonable time of being requested by another party to do so, must do all things and execute all documents that are reasonably necessary to give full effect to this easement.
- 7.7 Entire agreement
This easement comprises the entire agreement between the parties.
- 7.8 Waiver
- No waiver by either party of any breach of any covenant, obligation or provision in this easement contained or implied will operate as a waiver unless such waiver is in writing and no waiver by either party of any breach shall operate as a waiver of another breach.
- 7.9 Severance
If any part of this easement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a Court having the jurisdiction to do so, that part is considered to have been severed from the rest of this easement which remains in force unaffected by severance of that part.
- 7.10 Notices
A notice to be given under this easement must be in writing and is treated as being properly given if it is served personally or delivered or sent by prepaid post to:
- a) it is served personally on a party; or
b) in the case of the grantor, it is delivered or sent by prepaid post to the address of the land; or
c) in the case of the grantee, it is delivered or sent by prepaid post to its principal place of business; or
d) it is delivered or sent by prepaid post to an address provided by a party as its address for service; or
e) it is sent by email to the email address provided by a party.
- 7.11 Time of receipt
A notice given in accordance with clause 7.10 is treated as having been duly given and received:
- a) on the day it is served or delivered; or
b) on the second business day after posting (if sent by prepaid post); or
c) on the day it is emailed (if sent by email), provided that the sender of the email does not receive any notification of a failed transmission.
- 7.12 Governing law
This easement is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of Queensland and applicable statutes.
